MATTERS FOR DISCUSSION

Education Committee/Symposium Updates

- B. Stock gave a preliminary update on the attendee survey results and feedback from OWS 2019.
  - H. Jones commented that the OWB should look into serving our students and educational partners by providing more discounts so as to not create financial hardships or limit their participation at the Symposium.
  - B. Stock mentioned that there is a volunteer program that is offered to students to help offset costs.
  - T. Danowski mentioned that conversations have been going on with organizations that may have an interest in sponsoring student’s participation fees at Symposium.
  - K. Chambers discussed possibly including trade partners into future Symposiums.

Marketing/Communications Committee

- Marketing Committee Chair D. Morris briefed the Board on the Jan. 31 MarComm meeting which helped define and develop hypotheses around Brand Oregon and potential audiences.
- The MarComm listening tour dates are April 17 – 23.
- Conversations with Subject Matter Experts will take place late March/early April followed by the MarComm Summit on May 13.

International Committee

- International Committee Chair, B. Morus informed the Board that the next International Committee meeting will be held on May 16.
- The meeting will focus on expanding committee membership to bring in fresh perspectives and will be important for the committee to develop an annual international marketing plan and calendar.

Research Committee

- Research Committee Chair J. Tosch updated the Board on ongoing efforts to create and develop a Knowledge Center based on feedback resulting from the Research Summit.
- Research Committee Chair J. Tosch gave an update on the 2019-20 V&E proposed research project list. The Research Committee will convene on April 2 to review and score the research projects and arrive at its recommendations to be made to the Board at its Junemeeting.
